

“Hello, Trinity!”

Thank you, Trinity congregation. Thank you for your warm, encompassing welcome. In both my visit with you in April and now since May 2nd that I have been on site, I, and my wife, Connie, have been made to feel so welcome.

My first week on site was hectic with finding a place to live and all that goes with it. Connie will not be with me constantly here in Memphis; she has obligations back in Indianapolis that prevent that. So she will stay in and keep up our home there, coming down for extended visits from time to time. Since I neither had nor needed extra furniture, I intended to find a furnished apartment to live in locally; or perhaps an extended stay hotel. As I looked around the area, I also determined that I wanted to be as close as possible to the downtown area in order to pick up on the lifestyles, interest, availabilities, and thinking of the people closest to the church. And, I had in mind that my daughter and three grandchildren wanted to come and visit a time or two, and what their needs would be when they did so.

I ended up obtaining an apartment at Riverset on Mud Island. But, it being unfurnished, that meant finding enough furniture

Mission Statement of Trinity Lutheran Church

The mission of Trinity is to preach and teach the Good News as it is commanded by God (Matthew 28:18) and to reach out with the hands and arms of love to all humanity to do the work Christ commanded us.

on which to sleep, sit and eat. That’s what Craig’s List is for, and through Craig’s List (this is an unpaid endorsement) I was able to find what was needed/desired.

Then Connie came for a week and “put some color and style” into the conglomeration I had put together; and it has turned out quite functional for me and not an eyesore for her. So that’s accomplished. And in the process of running all over Memphis to look at things and pick things up, I learned quite a bit about getting around here.

I also managed to make a needed call or two, attend a meeting or two, and got fed at luncheons and dinners. And all that was just the first week – not bad, huh?

Now, if I could just learn some names. Uh-oh, someone is here at the church and is coming my way. Where’d I put that membership directory?

“The Green Season”

The festival half of the church year has just ended, and the “green season” of Pentecost has begun. From Advent and Christmas through Epiphany, Lent, Holy Week and Easter we hear the exciting accounts of Christ’s life, death and resurrection. The colors on the altar change from blue to white to black to purple to white to red. It culminates with the dramatic celebration of Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples like the rush of a mighty wind.

Then everything turns green, plain, ordinary green. A well-known frog has noted “it isn’t easy being green – you blend in with so many ordinary things.” In fact, the Anglican church refers to the Sundays after Pentecost as “ordinary time.” It reminds me of an azalea bush once the flowers are done blooming - boring. As a kid, I soon got tired of seeing green on the church altar week after week, month after month.

However, with each passing year I’m finding that the Sundays after Pentecost have their own brand of excitement. Advent and Christmas focus on the fulfillment of God’s promise to send a Savior: Pentecost focuses on the fulfillment of God’s promise to send his Spirit. At Christmas we celebrate Christ’s birth: Pentecost can be considered the birthday of the Church, and the green Sundays that follow mark the growth not only of the body of Christ but also the spiritual maturing of the disciples who comprise it. Who are those disciples? You and I!

In the Gospel reading for Trinity Sunday (the first Sunday after Pentecost), Christ tells his disciples, “I have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth.” Like those first disciples, we cannot handle everything Jesus would say all at once. These “green” Sundays give us time to “read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest” the truth of God’s love. Half of each church year is devoted to time to help us grow up as witnesses to Christ’s saving work, even as the first disciples grew into bold proclaimers of the faith.

Green, the color of growth, the color of faith: isn’t it beautiful?

“In Our Prayers”

Last Sunday I attended church in Champaign, Illinois with my niece, as our family gathered to celebrate her graduation from college. One of the things the pastor mentioned in the sermon was the joy of having someone offer heartfelt prayer just for you. For me personally, one of the most comforting things I can hear is, “I’ll pray for you.” Here at Trinity, each Sunday’s bulletin (and this newsletter, too) contains a list of people in special need of prayer. Many Trinity members pray every day for the people listed. Here’s an update:

Dale Anderson is scheduled for surgery early in June; Wanda Eble has been dealing with complications following surgery, but is much improved; Steven Stenwall is battling chronic back pain; Cam McDonald (Dar Heidbrink’s & Linda Nowlin’s nephew) is awaiting a kidney transplant; Hank and Johnnie Mowry’s daughter-in-law, Sharon Mowry is scheduled for surgery, and Pat O’Neal (also part of the Mowry connection) has cancer. Barbara Spahn’s mother, Barbara Cross has eye trouble. Jeffrey Dennis, Gertie Eddleman, Mary Lee Henard, Hank Mowry, Rita and Ruth Purdy, and Doug Reed all have ongoing health concerns.

Others on the list include Louise Alspaugh (Mary Henderson’s mother), Kimiko Schreiber (Eileen Sander’s mother), Gene Breimon, Robert Casper, Susan Coffman, Harriet Davis, Rosemarie Davis, Adele Harrison (Dorothy Martens’ sister), Mary Jo Ibrahim, Rose Klimek, Shirley Laster, Kimberly Lee, Kathy Liebman, Carla Mathena, Paul Norman, Kathy Stracener, Carrie Szumila, Jean Oldham’s sister and father Joyce and Donald Thuftedal, Barbara Westberg and Betty White (Paul White’s mother).

And please pray daily for our congregation and Pastor Myers in this time of transition. What a privilege, to be part of a community entrusted with the power of prayer!

Church Council Report

The Church Council met on May 2nd. Pastor Myers asked what we expect of him, and explained that his ministry here is to help our congregation figure out where we have been, where we are now, and where we want to be. An Installation Service will be held May 9th.

The Elders are looking into a transportation ministry and a church call chain. The Board of Education will hold VBS during the summer Sunday School hour, and also have plans for a Choir Camp. The Board of Evangelism is sending cards to our visitors, and hosted a successful Trivia Night. The Board of Social Ministry completed a clothing drive, with goods donated to MIFA.

Old Business: We still have two cemetery lots at Forest Hill Midtown for sale. We have an offer of $120,000.00 on the parsonage, and hope to close June 15th.

New Business: Board members were encouraged to review their responsibilities and also give some thought as to what the mission, job, business of the congregation is. These are some of the questions we need to consider as we begin our search for a new pastor.

The Air Conditioning unit for the pastor's and front offices is not working. We have the option of replacing the compressor (cost of $1,700) or replacing the entire unit ($6,000). Initially, the decision was made to replace the compressor, but when problems were encountered with that, the council made the decision to replace the unit.

Respectfully submitted,
Gloria Klauser, Secretary

Martens Scholarship Awards

Each year, scholarship awards are given to men and women of the Memphis area who are preparing for full-time church work as pastors, teachers and DCE's. Even with the down economy, last year the Martens Scholarship Fund awarded a total of $5,000.00 in grants to three Memphis area Lutherans. This fund is part of Trinity's Endowment Fund, and is named in memory of Rev. Paul Martens who served as Trinity's pastor for 25 years.

Grants are awarded each year to most of the area Lutherans who apply and are attending one of the Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod colleges, universities, or seminaries, and are planning to enter full-time church work. To obtain an application form, contact Trinity Lutheran Church's office. The deadline for receiving applications for the 2010-2011 school year is July 1st, 2010.

Thank You!

“Thank You” to the members of Trinity for your prayers, cards and expressions of sympathy at the death of our brother, L.V. Schmidt. Your kindness and caring attitude was greatly appreciated.

- Earl Schmidt and Lavern Wachter

Thank you for your gift of $500.00 to the Hospitality HUB. We will put your contribution to good use in support of our basic mission: to help homeless people move from the streets into productive lives. We appreciate your generosity and your concern for the homeless.

Beatrice Kimmons, Exec. Director
The Hospitality HUB

“Where Does it All Come from?”

In this wide, wonderful world of ours, a person possesses, on the average, a wide assortment of gifts. And all gifts, whether earned or inherited, can, in all honesty, be tracked back to our Creator – God. He is the very true source of all our blessings. There is just no doubt about it.

Yet, we often think in human terms and give credit to our genes or to the genes of our ancestors for any powers, gifts, or treasures we might possess. But, when you get down to that all-important bottom line, whatever we have, whatever gifts we possess, whatever treasure we have accumulated, we owe to God.

So it follows, as night follows day, that it is only right and just that we return a first portion of our gifts to God – a sacrificial gift! Give as He has given to you! Think about it! Pray about it! Do it!

- Bill Otte, Board of Finance

We’ll culminate by providing some musical leadership in our June 27 Sunday worship service, followed by a “FUNDAY” at Mud Island.

Volunteers of all kinds are also needed. We need you and your prayers for this camp to be an “orchestrated” success! Come, “make a joyful noise unto the Lord!” and have “A major” fun time, too!

LCMS congregations throughout the country will be receiving special offerings this summer to be presented at the national LCMS Convention in July. This NATIONAL OFFERING is a gift over and above our budgeted commitment to the Synod and District, and will be used where needed most to serve our churches, communities and the world. Trinity will receive this offering Sunday, June 6. Checks should be made payable to "Trinity" and marked "National Offering."

The floods came to Tennessee the first weekend in May. REDEEMING GRACE LUTHERAN CHURCH in Munford lost essentially everything, and Redeemer Lutheran in Nashville was also hard hit. Over $500 was raised through a door offering at Trinity May 16th., which will go to a relief fund established by the Mid-South District. Representatives from LCMS World Relief and Laborers for Christ have been to Nashville to assess the situation. Please keep all the flood victims in your prayers.

The Hospitality HUB (146 Jefferson Ave.) is now hosting a free LEGAL CLINIC for homeless individuals - Homeless Experience Legal Problems or H.E.L.P. Let me be there for my children when they need me,
And get out of their way when they don't."*
