“Where Do We Stand?”

As it turns out, Rev. Patrick Henry has declined our call to be Intentional Interim Pastor due to personal reasons that came up as we extended the call. So, where do we stand and what is next?

Well, we stand firm. We stand committed to Jesus Christ and God’s plan for us. And we stand determined to carry out the plan we have set forth – calling an Intentional Interim Pastor. It is just going to take a little while longer than we anticipated.

Trinity Lutheran Church has withstood and overcome more critical situations than this little bump in the road. When all is said and done, I believe we will be better for it. We have a strong, loving, and friendly congregation; and all our needs will be met by our Lord Jesus Christ. Pastor Wiese has trained the lay leaders of our congregation exceptionally well, and it is now time to put that training into action. Should any member have a question or a problem, contact your Elder.

Mission Statement of Trinity Lutheran Church

“The mission of Trinity is to preach and teach the Good News as it is commanded by God (Matthew 28:18) and to reach out with the hands and arms of love to all humanity to do the work Christ commanded us.”

The District Office has already been notified that we need another list of candidates for our Intentional Interim pastor position. The Call Committee should have this list within three weeks. It may take up to three months for the committee to perform its tasks.

Additionally, the committee is evaluating the possibility of utilizing the services of a Vacancy Pastor, who would serve part-time. This pastor would visit our homebound and hospitalized members, giving them care to meet their spiritual needs. This part-time pastor would work with the Worship Assistants and Parish Assistant to make sure worship happens, both on Sundays and for special Lenten and Holy Week services. Although a Vacancy Pastor’s service is limited in scope (visitations and worship), his service to us would be invaluable to our congregation as we continue our search for an Interim pastor and, ultimately, our new resident Pastor.

- David Chester, Head Elder

“Moving On”

This past weekend (Feb. 13/14) gave Trinity and others an opportunity to give thanks for the many years of service that Pastor Wiese has given to Trinity and to the church at large. Having gone through the retirement rituals a few years ago, it was interesting to stand back a bit; observe and reflect.

At the Saturday night retirement banquet, I quoted Ellen Goodman (columnist for the Commercial Appeal) who, on Jan. 1, 2010, after 46 years of deadlines, wrote her last column: “There’s a trick to the Graceful Exit. It begins with a vision to recognize when a job, a life stage, a relationship is over . . . and to let go. It means leaving what’s over without denying its validity or its past importance in our lives. It involves a sense of future, a belief that every exit line is an entry, that we are moving on . . . rather than out.”

While she spoke about her career, she also had words for us readers: “we are moving on.” The space that her words took up in newspapers is not left blank: others are filling in where her words used to be.

On Sunday, I gave a compact history of Trinity and Wiese since 1976. That history is the foundation of the parish – that must “move on.” The past becomes the building blocks of tomorrow. None of us has a crystal ball to foretell the future. What we do have is the ability to move on.

Trinity is a solid group of capable people who care for one another and are willing to share their gifts with the community. Our Lutheran heritage is a great foundation: we don’t have to re-invent the wheel, just use the tools that are in our hands, the skills we have been taught.

The pulpit won’t be vacant, nor the space where the people sit empty. I have never like the designation of a congregation that is without a full-time pastor as “vacant.” “Transition,” “interim,” are more descriptive. (In Jackson, they call me “supply.”)

We are moving on: Ron and June are moving east; those of us who stay put are “moving on” rather than “moving out.”

- Phil Schmidt

“The Body of Christ”

Last summer a group of Trinity members met to begin making plans to thank and honor Pastor Wiese upon his retirement. Our first meeting was pretty much organized chaos - (they don’t call it “brain-storming” for nothing!) However, as we continued to meet, it was apparent that each person brought a unique perspective and gift to the project, and before long the committee was functioning with great efficiency. The end result was the series of events we’ve all enjoyed, along with the special gifts presented to Pastor and June.

It was exciting, as the last meetings were held, to see the committee functioning as a unit. I was reminded of the New Testament scriptures that compare the Church to a human body. We are one body, united in Christ, and blessed with different gifts. These different gifts are all necessary “for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ.” (Ephesians 4:12)

In this time of transition, as we search for an interim pastor, it’s important to realize that each of us has gifts that are critical to the spiritual life of Trinity Lutheran Church and to its ongoing ministry. Some contributions are “up front” and obvious, while others are done quietly, “behind the scenes.” All are critical, all are necessary, all are recognized by God (although alas, not always by people.)

Being at the church day-in and day-out, I see people stepping up with their special gifts to help meet the needs of Trinity Lutheran Church. The guys who moved the stove contribute just as surely as the elders who lead our worship. In these days of transition, please pray that God send an extra measure of His Spirit on the family of believers at Trinity, inspiring us to recognize our own unique gifts and look for ways to put them to use for “building up the body of Christ.”

- Martha Israel

“Thank You!”

“Overwhelmed! Grateful! Honored!” These are just some of the many feelings that June and I experienced during the special events of February 13 and 14, celebrating my retirement as pastor of Trinity.

We were overwhelmed by the hundreds of people who came to the Saturday night dinner at Christ the King and the two Sunday worship services at Trinity. Family, members, former members and friends came from as far away as New York, Chicago, and Florida. We were deeply moved that so many came so far to join in the celebrations, sharing with us their love and appreciation for our 34-year ministry at Trinity and 40 years in the Holy Ministry.

We are grateful for the gracious monetary gifts. We thank the members and friends of Trinity who contributed so generously to the large cash gift we received. We also received cash gifts from the members of St. Paul Lutheran in West Memphis and from individuals. We plan to use these gifts to take a special trip, perhaps finally a trip to the Holy Land. These gifts show the wonderful love of our many brothers and sisters in Christ in the Mid-South area.

We were deeply honored by the awe-inspiring model of Trinity and the signed table cloth we received from Trinity congregation in January. We were blessed by the beautiful “Divine Servant” sculpture presented by the Mid-South District for my years of service to our district and Synod. And we thank the Memphis Circuit for the GPS, to help us find our way in the Carolinas.

We plan to remain in Memphis for the next few months. We will not be moving until we sell our home here. During that time we plan to worship with our faith family at Trinity as well as other Lutheran congregations in the Memphis area.

We have greatly enjoyed our partnership in the Gospel with the members of Trinity and with fellow Christians throughout the Mid-South. We will carry with us many fond memories of your love and support. May the Lord bless and keep you, one and all!

- Pastor Ron and June Wiese

Council Report

Trinity’s Church Council met on Feb. 7th in order to discuss quotes received for the purchase of a fire suppression system for the church kitchen. A new quote of $4,896.16 would include a new stove and vent with a fire suppression system. After discussion making sure the new stove would be large enough for our cooking needs and that the fire system would meet code, the motion was made and passed to approve the expenditure.

Council members were reminded of the dates for Lenten suppers, with a reminder to leave the kitchen clean and the refrigerator free of leftovers.

The next meeting of the council is February 28.

Respectfully submitted,
Gloria Klauser, Secretary
